

Hope Center, Inc Annual PREA Report

The Hope Center, Inc. had a total of had two investigations in 2017 for the men's program and two investigations for the women's program. The report is as follows: for the men both investigations were unsubstantiated among residents and one among staff and no further action was taken. The women had one investigation that was substantiated for sexual harassment among residents and the client was discharged. They also had one investigation that was unfounded among residents and no further action was taken.